Announcement to unitholders - receiving ad-hoc communications

You can elect the manner in which certain ad-hoc communications are sent to you in relation to the schemes ('Schemes') issued by OnePath Funds Management Limited ('OPFM') through ANZ OneAnswer Investment Portfolio (including //Select).

OPFM, as the responsible entity of the Schemes may, from time to time, be required or permitted under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) ('Act') to send important notices to unitholders in relation to the Schemes.

These notices are all of the 'covered documents' under section 110C of the Act, including things such as notices in respect of unitholder meetings (which may be held electronically, in person or a combination of both) and notices proposing to wind up a Scheme ('Notices').

As a unitholder, you can choose to receive any Notices, if and when they are required to be sent, either as a printed copy by post or by email. In addition, you have the right to choose not to be sent a copy of the Notices listed in s110E(5), which include annual financial reports for the Schemes.

If you don't make a choice, we will default to your contact preference for receipt of your statements. For example, if you've chosen to receive your statements via email, we will send you any Notices via email.
