

ANZ Seniors Privilege Domestic Travel Insurance

FEATURES | 11.09

Important Information

This is a domestic travel insurance policy only. It does not provide any medical or dental benefits or reimbursement for the cost of medical or dental treatment while you are travelling.

Cover is excluded for travel to Norfolk Island. Please note that, if you are cruising in Australian waters or travelling to Norfolk Island, Medicare or your private health fund may not cover you. You may need to purchase travel insurance for overseas travel if you want cover for medical and dental expenses.

In order to qualify for domestic travel insurance, ANZ account holders must fulfil the following conditions:

- ANZ account holders must be at least 60 years of age and no older than 80 years of age as at the date of departure of the journey and must hold, at the time of travel, an Eligible ANZ Access Account (as defined below and as described in the ANZ Saving & Transaction Products – Terms and Conditions);
- An Eligible ANZ Access Account means one of the following accounts opened on or after 1 October 2007:
 - ANZ Access Advantage account; and
 - ANZ Access Deeming account.
- no other ANZ account holders are covered by this policy;
- cover only applies where the holder of an Eligible ANZ Access Account is on a journey which is up to 3 months in duration and:
 - is an interstate journey within Australia with at least one overnight stay; or
 - is an intrastate journey within Australia with at least two overnight stays; or
 - requires the account holder to travel more than 200km from their normal place of residence;
 - claims must be made within 30 days of the holder of an Eligible ANZ Access Account returning to their normal place of residence; and
- the policy covers the holder of an Eligible ANZ Access Account plus the account holder's spouse and dependent children (under 21 years of age, not working full time as at the date of departure of the journey) accompanying the account holder on their trip, for the portions where they travel together.

Travel and health checklist

The following checklist will help you to have a safe and smooth journey.

Money – organise any cheques, credit cards and/or cash you need for your journey. Check your credit card expiry dates and limits.

Travel documents – make at least two copies of your important travel documents e.g. itinerary, travel insurance policy and tickets. Take your originals and a copy with you on your journey and leave a copy with a family member or friend.

Checking-in – confirm the minimum check-in time with your airline prior to your departure.

Deliveries/bills – cancel any deliveries, for example, milk and newspapers, and pay any bills prior to your departure. Ask a friend or relative to collect your mail and keep an eye on your home while you are away.

Deep Vein Thrombosis (DVT) – minimise the risk of DVT while travelling by drinking plenty of non-alcoholic, non-caffeinated drinks, and by exercising the lower limbs regularly to encourage blood flow.

Luggage labels – clearly label all of your luggage. Never leave your luggage unattended in a public place, and don't offer to carry anyone else's luggage.

Damaged luggage – check your luggage as soon as you arrive at your destination. If you suspect your luggage has been damaged or tampered with, report it immediately to the airline and airport/port officials. If your luggage has been damaged or tampered with, seek compensation from the airline or airport/port and get written confirmation of the incident from them.

Health insurance – check your private health insurance is up to date and remember to take your health insurance details and/or Medicare card with you on your journey.

Important Matters

You are eligible for the benefits under the ANZ Domestic Travel Insurance Master Policy by virtue of you continuing to be a holder of an Eligible ANZ Access Account. The Master Policy is a contract of insurance between ANZ and us. It is not a contract between CGU Insurance Limited and you.

When this policy is activated, cover is provided on the understanding and condition that:

1. At the commencement of the period of insurance, you are medically fit and do not and should not reasonably know of any reason why your journey may need to be cancelled or disrupted.
2. You are a permanent resident of Australia and are not departing Australia during your journey.
3. We will pay all claims in Australian dollars.
4. Any interpretation of this policy wording will be made according to the law of the state or territory in Australia in which you reside, and will be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of that state or territory in Australia.
5. If you have a loss involving other persons or their property, you must not tell them it was your fault or that you will pay them for the loss.
6. If you become involved in legal proceedings relating to cover under this policy, we may take over the action on your behalf. You must co-operate with us and assist us if we try to recover from the person who caused the loss.
7. You must not start any legal action before telling us.
8. If you have a loss and wish to make a claim, you must contact us within 30 days of returning to your normal place of residence from your journey. If your journey is cancelled, you must contact us within 30 days of the cancellation. You may be required to send in supporting documents. This includes police reports, medical and/or dental reports, original receipts for items you have lost or purchased (such as receipts for existing luggage, accommodation or emergency purchases), valuations or other proof of your loss or ownership and confirmation of the duration of your journey. We will not pay for losses which you cannot prove.
9. Claims arising directly or indirectly from pre-existing medical conditions are generally excluded by this policy (see definitions on page 2 and Exclusions to your cover on page 16). This applies to all persons including persons insured under the policy, their relatives, travelling companions and business partners.
10. We will not pay claims resulting from luggage left unsupervised (see page 2).
11. ANZ and CGU Insurance may also amend or terminate this Master Policy at any time. We may also refuse cover to any holder of an Eligible ANZ Access Account. Any amendment, termination or individual termination will be by written notification from us by ordinary mail to your last known place of residence and will be deemed to take effect either:
 - a. on the third day after the date of the notice; or
 - b. in the event you are on a journey and cannot be contacted, immediately on your return from your journey.
12. Cover will terminate immediately upon the closure of your Eligible ANZ Access Account for the following reasons:
 - a. closure by you; or
 - b. closure by ANZ in accordance with its rights under the terms of its contract with you for the issue of your Eligible ANZ Access Account (namely, the ANZ Saving & Transaction Products – Terms and Conditions).
13. You have the right to decide if you want to use the benefits offered under this Master Policy, however, the terms and conditions under this Master Policy cannot be amended or negotiated by you.

We will cover the reasonable costs of rescheduling your journey if you are unable to travel on your original departure date due to circumstances outside your control.

We will only cover these costs if:

- you advise us when you are able to travel;
- your insurance policy can be extended to cover your new period of journey; and
- you reschedule your travel arrangements because:
 - you become injured or ill due to a medical or dental condition that occurs in Australia;
 - your relative, travelling companion, travelling companions' relative or your business partner dies or becomes injured or ill;

Cancelled travel

We will cover any amount you have paid in advance for travel arrangements that are unused and you are unable to recover.

We will also cover your travel agent's cancellation fees up to $1,000 (inclusive of GST), or 15% of the total journey costs, whichever is the lesser amount.

We will only cover these costs if:

- the amount you have paid in advance for travel arrangements is unused, and you are unable to recover this amount:

- if you have paid for your trip using frequent flyer points or similar air travel points and cannot recover the lost points from any other source, we will pay you the value of your lost points.
- You cancel your travel because:
 - you, your relative, travelling companion, travelling companions' relative or your business partner dies or becomes injured or ill, however, we will not pay if their death, injury or illness is due to a pre-existing medical condition;
 - you need to sit supplementary exams;

 - you are an employee of the state or federal police, fire brigade, ambulance or armed forces and your services are required due to a state of emergency being declared;
 - you are retrenched unexpectedly and not voluntarily;
 - of any other unforeseen or unforeseeable circumstances that we agree to cover.

Major travel delays

We will cover the reasonable costs of any additional accommodation or travel expenses that result from you being delayed.

We will only cover these costs if the delay is caused by:

- transport you booked being cancelled, delayed or diverted due to strike, riot, civil commotion or hijack;
- you losing your travel documents;
- you unknowingly breaching a quarantine regulation;
- severe weather or a natural disaster;
- injury or illness to you or your travelling companion
 - we will also pay the accommodation and/or travelling expenses for one of your travelling companions, relatives or your partner to travel to you, stay with you, or escort you to another place agreed to by us, if you become disabled and your treating doctor or dentist advises that you require assistance;
- a railway, motor vehicle, marine or aircraft accident, on receipt of written proof of any delay from your carrier.

Minor travel delays

We will cover the reasonable costs of additional accommodation and meals if your travel is delayed, up to $500 (inclusive of GST) for you if you are travelling independently, or $1,000 (inclusive of GST) if you are travelling with your spouse and/or dependent children.

Please read Exclusions to your cover page 16.

If your luggage or travel documents are damaged or stolen

The most we will pay is a total amount of $2,500 if you are travelling alone and $5,000 if you are travelling with your spouse and/or dependent children.

Emergency purchases of clothing and toiletries

If your luggage has been misdirected, misplaced or delayed by your carrier, we will pay for emergency purchases of your clothing and toiletries, up to $400 (inclusive of GST) for you if you are travelling independently, or $800 (inclusive of GST) if you are travelling with your spouse and/or dependent children.

We will double these amounts if your luggage is still not returned to you after 72 hours.

We will only cover this if:

- you took reasonable care to minimise any loss and safeguard your property.

Travel documents

We will cover the cost of reissuing or replacing your travel documents or credit cards if they are stolen during your journey.

If your credit cards are:

- misused after they are stolen; or we will cover any amounts you cannot recover from your financial institution.

We will only cover this if you have complied with all the terms and conditions on which the credit cards were issued and have done everything you can to minimise your loss.

How to make a claim/resolve a dispute

|---|----|
| How to make a claim | 34 |
| How we settle your claim | 35 |
| Steps to resolve a complaint or a dispute | 36 |

How to make a claim

1. Contact us

We will give you immediate advice and assistance with your claim, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. You must tell us within 30 days of returning to your normal place of residence from your journey, or cancelling your journey if you wish to make a claim.

2. Provide us with all the information we need to assess your claim

We will need original Police reports, declarations, receipts, valuations or other evidence of ownership.

For loss or theft of luggage items, we will need a copy of the report you lodged with the Police or the carrier from where the loss or theft was reported, together with evidence of ownership, such as original receipts, photographs or operating manuals.

For cancellation expenses, we will need original receipts, tickets, or a letter from the travel agent showing any charges to re-arrange or cancel your journey, or a doctor's certificate or letter from the carrier.

How we settle your claim

1. If we agree to settle your luggage claim

We will decide whether to:

- repair the luggage;
- replace the luggage with nearest equivalent new luggage; or
- pay you the cost of repair or replacement.

We will reduce the amount we pay:

- to allow for age, wear, tear and depreciation; and
- by any amount that we pay you for emergency purchase of clothing and toiletries, if you make a claim for both lost luggage and emergency purchase of clothing and toiletries from the same incident.

Where we make a payment under this policy for acquisition of goods, services, supply or compensation, we will reduce the payment by deducting any input tax credit you are entitled to under A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.

Any claims that we pay will be in Australian dollars.

2. If we agree to settle your claim under a Cancellation Plan and you have used frequent flyer points or a similar scheme to purchase your ticket

We will:

- obtain the cost of an equivalent class airline ticket based on the quoted retail price at the time the original ticket was issued;
- less your financial contribution;
- then multiply this figure by the total number of points lost; and
- divide by the total number of points used to obtain your original ticket.

Steps to resolve a complaint or dispute

1. Talk to us first

If you have a complaint, the first thing you or your insurance adviser should do is speak to one of our staff. If your complaint relates specifically to a claim, speak with the claims officer managing your claim.

See page 30 for contact details.

If the staff member or claims officer is unable to resolve the matter for you, you or your insurance adviser may speak to a manager. If you are not satisfied with the decision you can go to step 2.

2. Seek a review

If the matter is still not resolved, the manager will refer you or your insurance adviser to the internal dispute resolution department who will conduct a review of your dispute.

If you are still not satisfied with the decision you can go to step 3.

3. Seek an external review

You are entitled to seek an external review of our decision. We can provide you or your insurance adviser with information on which options are available to you, such as referring you to the external dispute resolution scheme administered by the Insurance Ombudsman Service (IOS).

For more information about our complaint and dispute resolution procedures, contact us.

See page 30 for contact details.
