Frequently asked questions

Q. How do I know if I'm eligible?

A. ANZ Accident Cover Plus is available to all Australian and New Zealand citizens, aged 18-74 and residing in and receiving the ANZ Accident Cover Plus Product Disclosure Statement and Policy (PDS) in Australia.

Q. How much will it cost?

A. 28 cents a day for $50,000¹ in cover. Up to $1 million of Accidental Death Benefit for less than $3.20 a day. There are no age-based premium increases.

Q. Do I have to have a medical?

A. There are no medicals or health questions.

Q. When does my cover start?

A. You're covered from the moment we accept your application and cover is guaranteed renewable (until age 84).

Q. What if I'm injured?

A. For a small additional premium, you have the option to be covered for up to $50,000 for specified accidental injuries (see PDS for details). E.g. you can receive $10,000 if you fracture your hip or pelvis.

Q. How can I pay?

A. You can choose to pay your premiums fortnightly, monthly or annually.

Some things we don't cover

To keep your monthly premiums as low as possible a few things are not covered. For example, we will not pay a claim if the accident occurs when a life insured is driving a motor vehicle with a blood alcohol level or breath test result over the legal limit or with an illegal substance in their system. You should check the PDS for full terms, conditions and exclusions.

Choose your cover

Often families insure the main breadwinner but overlook the importance of covering the primary care giver. With ANZ Accident Cover Plus you can cover yourself and your partner under the same policy and have the peace of mind of knowing your family is looked after. You will also receive a premium discount when taking combined cover.

Optional Accidental Injury Benefit

You can choose to cover yourself against a number of specified accidental injuries such as a broken nose and permanent paraplegia. This option can provide a benefit of up to $50,000 for a covered injury. For details of the injuries covered, see the PDS.
