Important information

Before you complete this Application Form it is important that you note the following:

- Your 'spouse' who can receive your splittable contribution amount includes any person (whether of the same sex or different sex) with whom you are in a registered civil union or domestic relationship or who, whether or not legally married to you, lives with you on a genuine domestic basis in a relationship as a couple.
- The Trustee (OnePath Custodians Pty Limited) has a Contributions Splitting Policy (Policy) containing details of when the Trustee will accept or reject an Application Form. We recommend you read the Policy before completing this Application Form. You can obtain a copy of the Policy by calling Customer Services.
- If you intend to claim or vary a tax deduction for personal superannuation contributions made during the relevant financial year, you must inform the Trustee before or with this Application Form. For your convenience, a copy of the Notice of Intent to Claim or Vary a Deduction for Personal Super Contributions Form has been attached to this document. Applications to claim a tax deduction received after a contribution split has been processed will be rejected by the Trustee.
- You may incur costs in redeeming and withdrawing any splittable contribution amount. Please refer to your relevant Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) for further details.
- You may nominate a splittable contribution amount for the previous financial year or if you are transferring, rolling over or cashing out your total benefit for the current financial year.
- If you nominate a splittable contribution amount which is greater than the maximum amount permitted to be split, the Trustee will split an amount equal to the maximum splittable contribution amount.
- You are unable to nominate your splittable contribution amount be split to multiple accounts.
- If you lodge multiple application forms and Section 290-170 Notices for a previous financial year and the current financial year, the Trustee will accept and process the documents in a predetermined order. Please refer to the Policy for further information.

You can provide a Superannuation Contributions Splitting Application Form in respect of your taxed splittable contributions for the previous financial year. Taxed splittable contributions are contributions to your superannuation account that are taxable to the fund for income tax purposes. These include personal contributions for which you have claimed a tax deduction and all employer contributions. A 15% contributions tax applies to taxed splittable contributions and the amount of taxed splittable contributions nominated should be based on the net-of-tax contribution.

For example, if a total of $10,000 in employer contributions have been made, the net-of-tax contributions are $8,500. Should you wish to split the maximum amount, you will need to generally nominate $8,500 or the maximum amount. Any dollar amount requested will be based on the net-of-tax contribution amount.
